

Petroleum Research School of Norway (NFiP) & NorTex Petroleum Cluster in collaboration with Rice University announce:

4TH BIENNIAL CO₂ FOR EOR AS CCUS CONFERENCE FOR 2019

The conference is a collaborative symposium on CO₂ EOR between Universities in Texas and Norway, oil industry in Texas and Norway and other CO₂ EOR stake holders. This three day event will bring together about 60 students from Norway, Brazil, India and USA; travel and accommodation will be paid by NFiP. Sponsored by Norway's Ministry of Petroleum and Energy, International Energy Agency (IEA), US Dept. of Energy (USDOE), Norwegian Research Council (NRC), Equinor and BP.

Details:

Date: Sept. 25th – 27th, 2019

Venue: Rice University, BRC-
Auditorium, 6500 Main St.,
Houston, TX, USA

Extended deadline for students from USA: September 6th (Email to Arne.Graue@uib.no)

Eligible Applicants

PhD- and Master Students within petroleum related topics from all Universities in Norway and from NFiP MoU universities.

Social Program

Day 1 (Wednesday 25th, 19:00):
Reception and Buffet Dinner at the Residence of Norway's Consul General in Houston

Day 2 (Thursday 26th, 18:00):
Conference Dinner at Hilton Houston Plaza/ Medical Center

Scientific Program

(Likely to be adjusted, more program details at website)

Day 1 (Wednesday Sept 25th):

09:00 CO₂ for EOR with CO₂ storage in Conventional Reservoirs
16:00 PhD presentations
17:00 End of technical session

Day 2 (Thursday Sept 26th):

09:00 CO₂ applied to Unconventional Hydrocarbon Reserves
12:30 Field experience, Case studies and Way Forward
15:20 PhD presentations
17:00 End of technical session

Day 3 (Friday Sept 27th):

10:00 Tour of Houston Petroleum Museum
13:00 Tour of University Of Houston EOR Laboratories

For more information about the conference and other NFiP activities, visit the website: <https://nfip.no/> or scan the QR code →

